

BEACH, SC

Charleston's Beach Town

Folly Beach, South Carolina is one of America's last true beach towns. Just minutes from historic downtown Charleston, Folly Beach is a 12 square mile barrier island that is packed with things to do, see and eat. This is a funky, laid-back, come-as-you-are kind of beach. The pace is invitingly slow, the people are captivating and the shops and restaurants will receive you with good old fashioned southern charm and hospitality. It won't take long for you to feel right at home.

Surrounded by the Atlantic Ocean and the Folly River, visitors enjoy six miles of wide beaches, surfing, fishing, biking, kayaking, boating, eco-tours, and sea-wildlife including several endangered species. The sunrises and sunsets on Folly are legendary, so make sure you have plenty of space on your camera or smart phone ... seriously, free up lots of space!

A few steps from the beach, downtown Folly features an eclectic array of locally owned stores and restaurants. Fun bohemian clothing, beach knick-knacks and surf shops are mixed with fantastic seafood restaurants, casual cafes and one-of-a-kind bars. With live music coming from all directions and colorful cocktails calling your name, your cares will melt away as you become lost in the Folly lifestyle. And when the sun goes down, Center Street becomes a lively mix of beach-casual nightlife and rooftop dance clubs.

Whether you need a beach front home for a large group or a romantic room for the two of you, Folly Beach is the perfect spot for vacations, reunions, beach weddings, or just a quick weekend get-away. Come visit us at 'The Edge of America' ...

you'll love life on the edge.

What to Do

You'll never believe what we can fit into 12 square miles. We may be laid-back but we like to take advantage of the natural amusement park that surrounds our beach town. Our quaint little island can keep you busy from morning until night.

FOLLY BEACH ECO-TOURISM

Many of the activities and tours on Folly Beach are focused on our ecology. With thousands of fascinating life forms indigenous to our land and water, you will be mesmerized by our “locals”. Several endangered species call Folly home, including the loggerhead sea-turtle and Wilson’s plover, so please, adhere to stated rules in respect to these creatures and help us ensure their continued protection.

Look for the “Folly Beach Eco-Tourism”  icon throughout this press kit.

Fun on the Water

SURFING

Folly Beach is one of the premiere surfing destinations on the East Coast. You'll find surfers all along the beach, but the most popular spot is The Washout, a strip of beach that catches the biggest waves in the area. Whether you're an avid surfer or just want to give it a try, grab your board (or rent one at any of our surf shops) and catch a wave.

FISHING

Folly Beach offers all the variety a fisherman could want. Enjoy bountiful surf fishing, river fishing, pier fishing and deep-sea sport fishing year-round due to the Lowcountry's mild temperatures. The common catches on Folly are spotted sea trout, sheepshead, black drum, Spanish mackerel, king mackerel, bluefish, whiting, pompano, red drum, flounder and perch. Try your hand at crabbing, oystering or claming while you're here.

ECO-TOURS & EXCURSIONS

Explore the natural beauty of Folly Beach through a variety of sightseeing tours and excursions available both on land and on water.

Wave hello to the friendly dolphins, spend some time bird watching, take an environmental eco-cruise through the salt-marshes or learn the Civil War history of the Morris Island Lighthouse.

WATER SPORTS

A trip to Folly Beach isn't complete without venturing out on top of the water. Kayaks, stand-up paddle boards, jet skis, parasailing, relaxing sail boat cruises - you name it. Go it on your own or take a guided tour.

The options are endless!
